As most of you know, its the Centenary of IWD this year. The special day set aside to both celebrate and advocate the rights of women was held for the first 2 years 1911 & 1912 on March 19th and then transferred to 8th of March from 1913-present. More herstory available online here.

Please visit our online Noticeboard for information and links on IWD events. We hope that you get to enjoy some of the events today and this weekend with IWD Marches around the globe on Saturday the 12th.

In our thoughts...

Laura Brown, the sons - Daniel, Benny and Ryan, family and friends of Liz Ireland who died on Thursday 3 March 2011 in a car/moped accident. Liz was a community-minded activist, and a good friend to a wide range of people.

Among other interests, Liz was a wonderful drummer and drum teacher bringing womyn together for over 20 years.

Liz is already very much missed, especially within our lesbian community of which she was a generous contributor.

Keep on drumming Liz !

We'll think of you when thunder sounds and rain dances rhythms in pitter-patters like a rolling snare. We'll also think of you on sunny days in the park where we have joined you with our djembes, bells, & shakers for many years.
